Community Advisory Committee Application

Thank you for applying to participate in the Community Advisory Committee (CAC). Candidates will be selected based on the responses provided below. Five representatives from the community will serve on the committee, one of which will be a business owner and another a representative of a neighbourhood not-for-profit society. Two alternate members will be selected to attend meetings when regular members are unavailable. If more than the required number of applicants equally meet the eligibility criteria, a lottery process will be used to select members. Information provided in this application will be confidential and used exclusively for the purposes of establishing the Community Advisory Committee representatives.

Name: _____ Home address: _____

Email address: _____ Primary phone number: _____

Business/Society name and address (if applicable): _____

I have read and agree to the Community Advisory Committee Terms or Reference document that is attached to this application.

1. Why are you interested in serving as a community representative on the committee?

2. Are you willing to bring the ideas and concerns of other residents and business owners to the CAC meetings?

3. Are you available to prepare for and attend bi-weekly or monthly meetings of the Committee over the course of its operation (18 months)?

4. Please provide any other additional information that you would like to share regarding consideration of your application.
