

JOB DESCRIPTION

TITLE: Peer Support Worker
LOCATION: Victoria, BC
TERM: Casual Employee
WAGE: $22.00-$23.00

OVERVIEW

Who We Are

The Greater Victoria Coalition to End Homelessness (GVCEH) was formed in 2008 with a mission to end homelessness in the Capital Region. The GVCEH's activities center around funding effectiveness, system effectiveness, inclusiveness, evidence-based reporting, and building capacity. As a "backbone" organization, the GVCEH facilitates information sharing, relationship building, and strategic planning to ensure that collective efforts of community partners are making the greatest possible difference.

Who You Are

You seek meaningful work surrounded by people who are passionate about homelessness from a rights-based perspective. You are values-driven and outcome oriented, thriving in a collaborative environment in which diverse partners work toward a common goal. You are passionate about utilizing your own lived experiences, skills, and strategies for recovery in your work. You seek meaningful work in connecting with Persons with Living/Lived Experiences with homelessness through the lens of peer support service delivery and within the scope of the recovery philosophy. You are dedicated to bringing the Voice of Peoples with Living/Lived Experience to the work you do within a supportive team environment, in on-to-one meetings in community with peers, and within larger group settings and meeting spaces.

Why Choose Us

- Growth Opportunities – We encourage ongoing professional development
- Employee Support – We are leaders in responsive employee support options, including for contract and part-time employees
- Flexible Work Schedule – We offer the option to work remotely or to vary your work schedule when needed
- Collaborative and Inclusive Work Environment – We work together
- Great Location – We are in downtown Victoria and work across the region

JOB SUMMARY

Peer Support Worker

This position supports the work of the Peer Housing Support Program and the Greater Victoria Coalition to End Homelessness and reports to the Peer Housing Support Team Lead and the Peer Housing Support Coordinator. This position is responsible for the peer support work of the Peer Housing Support Program. This means working with: funders; partners; members; interested parties; and the community as a whole, to end homelessness throughout the Capital Region.

This position will provide training and ongoing collaborative program development opportunities while working as a valued member of a team in a supportive and dynamic environment. The Peer Support Worker is connected through active engagement and ongoing support service activities with Persons with Living/Lived Experiences of homelessness in a mutually supportive and relational structure. The Peer Support Worker is responsible for supporting peers in the local community in their unique and individual experiences, transitions, and recovery journeys from experiences with homelessness to self-defining, establishing, and maintaining safe and stable housing.

The Peer Housing Support service delivery model relies primarily on a recovery-based and person-centered support approach that is evidence-based through published research, and through the Peer Housing Support Program's peer research activities. The Peer Support Worker strives to connect with peers through shared experience in ways that strengthen hope, reduce power imbalances, and provide social and emotional support for those who may be experiencing challenges in their unique journeys. The Peer Housing Support Program is continuously being led and developed by Persons with Lived Experiences of homelessness and is deeply rooted within the best practices of the recovery philosophy and the regional peer support movement.
